

Application form for financial support for diamond journal publishing

Before submitting an application, please check that the journal meets the eligibility criteria listed on the UL Open Science website. Applications from journals that do not meet the criteria will not be considered.

Journal name:

Editor-in-chief:

Proprietary:

Publishing house, distribution platform:

URL:

The journal is requesting funding for 2024:

yes, for a lump sum of €2,500

yes, for an amount of less than €2,500.
Please specify:

The journal is requesting additional funding for the following expenses (list the anticipated expenses for the coming year):

Expense	Estimated cost

Applications for funding are reviewed by the UL Open Science Steering Committee. Requests for additional funding may be prioritised in order to respect the available budget.

Please note: the financial support provided by the Université de Lorraine to journals is not part of a labelling or classification policy. UL open science support fund does not replace funding from research units, scientific clusters, CNRS-SHS or other institutions.

Form to be sent to ddoc-edition-contact@univ-lorraine.fr